Dear Holly,

I have got a friend called Mel. We do everything together. We get on well with each other. I really like her. We've got the same hobbies, and we share our secrets. Mel is really a nice person, and she's my best friend. In fact, she is my only friend. But now, she has got a new friend, Sarah. Mel likes Sarah because they play tennis together after school. I'd like to play tennis with them, but I can't play because I'm not good at sports. She always spends time with her.

I'm worried because I think Mel is going to forget about me. I don't want to be selfish, but what can I do?

Please help me.
